Prosperity without Growth?

International training for youth workers, educators and multipliers

29/02 – 07/03/2020

Trebnitz, Germany

We are happy to invite you to an international training on social-ecological transformation!

What? How can there be a good life for all within the ecological limits of our planet? That is the guiding question of this international training. It offers an opportunity to:

- ✓ deepen your understanding of the pros and cons of economic growth,
- ✓ discover alternative ways of living and doing economics,
- ✓ develop own ideas and interact with participants from six different countries.

Why? The predominant economic model of our time is based on unlimited growth and the exploitation of natural resources. But how can there be infinite growth on a finite planet?

Manifold crises – including climate change, increasing social disparities across the globe, large migration movements, an instable financial system and a loss of confidence in political institutions – indicate that the capitalist system is failing.

Together we will critically reflect upon the growth paradigm and explore paths to a post-growth society that is more democratic, solidary and sustainable. In doing so, we will bring together perspectives from Armenia, Bulgaria, Germany, Moldova, Poland and Ukraine.

How? We will actively involve the participants and engage our brains, hearts and bodies. Our methodological approach includes theoretical inputs, discussions, reflections, cooperation games, best-practice examples, open space and others.

Where? Trebnitz Castle Education and Exchange Centre, Germany (60km east of Berlin)

When? 29/02 – 07/03/2020

Who? 30 youth workers, educators, students, teachers, activists and other multipliers (5 per country) who are or who are interested in the topic and youth work, but have never done it before. Either way we invite you to apply!

- ✓ living in Armenia, Bulgaria, Germany, Moldova, Poland or Ukraine (18 years upwards), citizenship is not a precondition.
